

Planning for tax season: Form 1095-B

IRS Form 1095-B is required under the Affordable Care Act. It verifies that you and any covered dependents had healthcare coverage during the prior tax year. You'll need this form to file your taxes.

You'll receive your form in the mail in January 2023, or you can choose to receive your 1095-B online and you'll get an email alerting you when you can access it.

Electronic delivery is fast and easy!

For an easier tax season, sign up for online delivery by December 31, 2022.

To request an electronic copy of Form 1095-B:

- Sign in to your account on premera.com.
- Under My Account, choose Account Settings.
- Locate PREFERENCES on the right column of the page and under Paperless Tax Form 1095, turn the switch to ON.
- You'll get an email in January 2023 when the form is available online.
