

VENDOR GUIDELINES

Guidelines for vendors working with Premera Blue Cross

Premera Blue Cross is committed to complying with the letter and spirit of all applicable legal and ethical standards with the highest degree of integrity and honesty.

General Expectations

Adopt a code of ethical behavior and comply with all applicable laws and regulations

Inform Premera of major organizational changes (such as a merger or acquisition), changes in the account team, or operations that may affect the services or service levels expected under contract

Notify Premera and obtain our permission prior to engaging subcontractors or offshoring that may affect services under contract with Premera

Avoid offering favors, gifts, or gratuities to Premera associates that may appear to create a conflict of interest

Adopt written policies and procedures that provide protections for employees who report suspected fraud, waste, and abuse

Maintain all records pertaining to Premera Medicare business for 10 years

Security Guidelines

Premera will conduct initial and periodic vendor risk assessments based on the nature of services provided and type of information access

Vendors must conduct background checks on all employees and other workers or agents who provide onsite services and who have access to Premera information

Vendors with access to Premera protected health information (PHI), personal protected information (PPI), or private company information must:

» Have a fully executed non-disclosure agreement or contract before data is exchanged

» Comply with all applicable federal and state data privacy laws, including HIPAA and HITECH

» Undergo a periodic risk assessment or audit of controls by a third party of its general IT controls, such as SOC2 Type II, and HITRUST

» Provide evidence of security controls in the form of vulnerability and penetration testing

(network, host, application)

» Ensure compliance with security controls with supporting policies & procedures

» Agree to notify Premera promptly in the case of a security or data breach

» Ensure proper handling and disposal of corporate proprietary information, PHI, and PPI

Payment

Premera requires a fully executed contract and purchase order to pay vendor invoices

Legal and Regulatory

All vendors must be cleared through the Office of Inspector General, the Office of Foreign Assets Control, and the System for Award Management, Excluded Party List System sanction checks

Vendors who are a Centers for Medicare & Medicaid (CMS) first-tier, downstream, or related entity (FDR) must also conduct monthly sanction checks on their employees and vendors and at time of hire/contracting

If designated as an FDR, the vendor must comply with CMS regulations, including but not limited to annual CMS compliance and fraud, waste, and abuse training and certification for their employees and vendors

Risk and Audit

Vendors are expected to carry appropriate insurance and provide evidence of coverage

Premera reserves the right to conduct a periodic audit and review of all records related to services rendered under the agreement or contract

Vendors must accept unlimited liability for breaches of confidential information

Financial Viability

Provide written evidence of financial viability, which may include audited financial statements

Diversity and Social Responsibility

Premera encourages vendors to adopt diversity and inclusion policies

Premera encourages vendors to adopt environmental sustainability policies

Vendors must agree not to discriminate in employment on the basis of sex, age, race, color, religion, origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, health status, or disability.

Disaster Readiness and Business Continuity

Provide evidence that a disaster readiness or business continuity plan is in place to ensure supply of product or service in the event of business disruption

Records

Vendors must maintain accurate records with respect to services provided to Premera and follow the Premera records retention schedule

Discrimination is Against the Law

Premera Blue Cross complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Premera does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.
