

Physical therapy is now available virtually!

It's not just injuries that can slow us down. Daily aches and pains can keep us from participating in activities we enjoy.

That's why we have partnered with Physera. Physera is a program that provides virtual physical therapy to help reduce pain and achieve lasting relief. The program provides support and individualized exercise programs to address back pain, arthritis, injury recovery, and more.

Through Physera, you'll get:

- Direct access to a dedicated, licensed physical therapist
- The freedom to do physical therapy anytime, anywhere
- A personalized recovery plan and ongoing support
- Time back in your busy schedule by not having to go to in-office appointments
