

February 14, 2023

This is an addendum that updates your Summary of Benefits (SoB), Evidence of Coverage (EOC), and Annual Notice of Change (ANOC) documents. Below you will find information describing the details of this addendum. Please keep this information for your reference. The amended documents can be found on our website at premera.com/ma.

The Inflation Reduction Act signed by President Biden in 2022 includes changes to your insulin and vaccine benefits on Premera's Medicare Advantage plans.

For HMO, Classic, Total Health, Sound+Rx and Peak+Rx plan members:

Effective January 1, 2023

- You won't pay more than $35 for a one-month supply of each insulin product covered by our plan, no matter what cost-sharing tier it is on, even if you haven't paid your deductible. All members are eligible, including those who receive "Extra Help".
- Our plan covers most Part D vaccines* at no cost to you, this coverage applies regardless of the vaccine's drug tier or even if you haven't paid your deductible.

Effective April 1, 2023

- Coinsurance for some Part B drugs may be reduced, if the drug's price has increased at a rate faster than the rate of inflation. Enrollees impacted by this change may receive a refund. The list of Part B drugs as well as beneficiary coinsurance for those drugs could change each quarter.

Effective July 1, 2023

- Insulin furnished under Part B, through an item of durable medical equipment (such as a medically necessary insulin pump) is subject to a coinsurance cap of $35 for a one-month's supply, no matter what cost-sharing tier it is on, even if you haven't paid your deductible.

For Alpine plan members:

Effective April 1, 2023

- Coinsurance for some Part B drugs may be reduced, if the drug's price has increased at a rate faster than the rate of inflation. Enrollees impacted by this change may receive a refund. The list of Part B drugs as well as beneficiary coinsurance for those drugs could change each quarter.

Effective July 1, 2023

- Insulin furnished under Part B, through an item of durable medical equipment (such as a medically necessary insulin pump) is subject to a coinsurance cap of $35 for a one-month's supply, no matter what cost-sharing tier it is on, even if you haven't paid your deductible.
